Information about PRRT

Who we are

PRRT is an Executive Non Departmental Public Body fully funded by the Department of Justice (DoJ).

What we do

The Police Rehabilitation and Retraining Trust was established in 1999 to enable members and former members of the Police Service to achieve and sustain a successful transition into civilian life. To achieve this, PRRT assists its clients to recognise their potential, identify opportunities, set and achieve their objectives and enjoy optimum mental and physical wellbeing beyond policing.

We enable clients to achieve their goals by providing the following services:

- Personal Development, Coaching and Training service
- Physiotherapy
- Psychological Therapies

The Trust also provides services (whether directly or on a sub-contract basis) to non-police bodies within, or funded by, the Department of Justice for Northern Ireland.

We support police officers planning to retire from service, or those who have already retired from the Police Service of Northern Ireland (PSNI) or Royal Ulster Constabulary (RUC). We will offer support to partners and immediate family members of eligible clients, in specific circumstances. In addition, our Psychological Therapies department provides a children and young people's service to children of retired police officers.

Our services are also open on a self-funding basis to the following groups:

- Police staff
- Immediate family members of serving or retired police officers
- Part Time Reserve Officers
- Serving or retired officers who do not meet the eligibility criteria.

Our Board and Senior Management Team

Our Board is responsible for the control and strategic direction of PRRT. The Chief Executive is accountable to the Board of Directors, and manages the services with a dedicated Senior Management Team accountable to him.

The senior management team is comprised of the Head of Psychological Therapies, Head of Physiotherapy, Head of Personal Development & Training, with responsibility for driving quality initiatives and Head of Finance and Shared Services.
